

CEER Webinar Series on Data Accessibility #1 Market and Consumer Data

Wednesday 10 February 2021, 10:00-12:30

Register here

Draft Agenda (V5)

10:00 – 10:05	Welcome Address Opening Remarks and Organisation	Veli-Pekka Saajo , CEER, DS WG Chair
10:05 – 10:30	Introduction and policy perspective on data accessibility and trends
	European initiatives such as European Strategy for Data, Data Spaces, Data Governance Act, Open Data and high-value datasets.	Jiri Pilar , European Commission (DG Connect)
	Clean Energy Package: ensuring easy and non-discriminatory access to data and interoperability of the data and the related processes	Louise van Rensburg & Christelle Heng , CEER delegates to EG3 & EG1
10:30 – 10:40	Regulatory perspective
	What are the (new?) tasks and the objectives of regulators in this field?	Clara Poletti , ARERA Commissioner/ACER BoR Chair
10:40 – 11:25	Academic perspective
	On consumers-market side, data access and interoperability: What NRA should be thinking about; Risk/opportunities of such a new scenario
	Data availability/accessibility : Different dimensions of data access; overview of the challenges, intuition of the solutions; connection to interoperability challenges and solutions	Valerie Reif , Florence School of Regulation
	Consumers : needs/wishes and (new) rights of consumers; (perceived) barriers for integrating consumers into electricity markets (technical, educational/awareness ...) intuition of solutions to overcome them	Helena Gerard , VITO
	New roles and responsibilities: active consumers; DSOs as neutral market facilitators; other actors on the scene	Silvia Vitiello , European Commission (DG Joint Research Centre)
11:25 – 12:25	Panel discussion on current practice of data access, exchange and consent management: challenges and lessons learned from Member States

Moderator:

Judith Ward, Sustainability First

Panellists:

Agustin Reyna, BEUC

Constantina Filiou European Commission
(DG Energy)

Eleonora Bettenzoli, CEER-ARERA

12:25 – 12:30 Closing Remarks

Louise van Rensburg, CEER, DS
WG Vice Chair